3) Copyright Waiver

- a. By submitting work to this competition and exhibition the photographer/artist agrees to make the image available for the purpose of ongoing advertising, promotion, and other similar activities undertaken by Destination Fiordland (including the copying, reproduction, and publication of the work) and therefore waives all copyright to the image submitted.
- b. In the event that organisers wish to reproduce the image, all negatives and/or digital files of the image must be made available without charge.

4) Model Release Requirements

- a. All photographs that show people in a way in which they might be recognised should, where ever possible, be accompanied by a 'model release form' stating the person's permission to be included in the photograph and acknowledgment that there may be ongoing use of that image in the public domain. Model release forms are on the reverse side of the entry form. Failure to complete this form will be at the liability of the entrant.

5) Entry Delivery & Pick Up

- a. Entries will close at 1pm Sunday 3rd October 2010. All works must be at the designated collection point by this date. NO late entries will be accepted.
- b. All entrants are responsible for delivery and pick up of work from the designated collection point, that being the Te Anau Information Centre – Lakefront Drive, P.O.Box 49, Te Anau.
- c. All freight and postal costs to and from the designated collection point are to be met by the entrant. If posting/freighting entries, please include pre-paid, self addressed packaging or forfeit the right to have your entries returned.

6) Judging & Prize Allocation  Prizes maybe cash OR Voucher*

- a. Winning entries for the 4 main categories will be selected by a judging panel which will include representatives from Destination Fiordland and sponsor's, as well as a professional photographer/guest judge.
- b. Other prizes will be awarded solely by the sponsor of that prize, entirely at this prize sponsor's discretion.
- c. The judges' decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
- d. Winners for all categories with exception of the 'Peoples Choice' award will be presented their prizes at the opening ceremony of the Destination Fiordland Photographic Competition Exhibition.
- e. The Peoples Choice Award will be awarded at the conclusion of the Exhibition event.

7) Exhibition Display

- a. The arrangement of the exhibition display is to be undertaken by the organisers of the event. Design and final exhibition details are at the discretion of the event organisers.
- b. Entries to all categories must conform to minimum display standards (as outlined further in Conditions of Entry - Display Requirements) and be ready for display/exhibition.
- c. The organisers reserve the right to refuse to display work that is not adequately presented. This will be at the organiser's discretion.

8) Storage

- a. Entry to the competition means that the original work submitted may be held by organisers for display for a period of up to three months or such longer period determined by the organisers.
- b. Destination Fiordland will not take responsibility for any damage to works delivered to collection point, or any damage incurred by works in transit to the exhibition venue or collection point.

9) General Conditions

- a. Entry to the competition indicates acceptance of the conditions as stated herein.

Good Luck - we look forward to receiving your entry!
